

There is no Planet B

We meet the needs of today's generation without restricting those of the next generation.

Since we attach great importance to sustainability we are committed to the conscious use of our resources.

Nadine Imboden GmbH

Sustainability is close to my heart and I use natural products wherever possible - in line with the motto:
Buy less, choose well, make it last
by Vivienne Westwood.

Nature Loving Artistic Director

DIGITAL FIRST

Wherever possible, we prefer digital meetings, reduce travel and thus save CO<sub>2</sub>. We are also increasingly orchestrate digital show productions.

CHOOSE WISELY

As a climate-friendly alternative, we choose public transport or ETRIX "Ecooter" to get to external meetings.

OVERSEAS

As for international events, where flying cannot be ruled out, we deliberately pay the CO<sub>2</sub> surcharge.

THIS IS HOW WE'RE ECOLOGICALLY
ON THE MOVE
IN EVERYDAY LIFE

PRIVATE COSTUME ROOM

We have our own costume pool and make sure that costumes are re-sewn or styled to be used multiple times, showing how versatile outfits can be.

PROPS REUSE

Show props are reused or given to training centers and partner organizations (e.g. stages/ski jump etc.)

MINERGIE-STANDARD

Our Creative Office is located in a Minergie-certified building, which means low energy consumption and a high proportion of renewable energy.

WE SET AN EXAMPLE FOR RESOURCE-
SAVING MANAGEMENT

MINDFULNESS & PREVENTION

We pay attention to a comprehensive warm-up before rehearsals to prevent injuries. We also emphasize mindfulness and reduce stressful situations through good preparation processes.

REPURPOSING

Glass, cardboard and paper are either repurposed and reused or disposed of properly.

100% ORGANIC

We use homemade organic products, palm oil free, plastic free, produced by one of our team members.

MAKING SMALL MARKS AND ACHIEVING GREAT THINGS IN THE PROCESS

FOODPRINT "BLATT-HOF"

Owned by the family for generations. The alpine herbs yak products are 100% natural. Preservatives, colorants and pickling salt are not used in the production of dried meat and raw sausages.

PARTNER IN CRIME

We work with partners who pay attention to a conscious use of resources and take our responsibility towards our customers seriously.
